

Assignment 4

Design a network following the given diagram using three routers (Use only class B IP address for all networks). Then, configure static routing and ensuring successful ping communication between two PCs located in different networks. Submit it along with a detailed report.

